STEAM THRESHING MACHINE. - We saw a new Threshing Machine driven through our streets the other evening, closely followed by a steam engine on wheels. Four horses pulled with ease both the Threshing Machine and its motive power, the steam engine. We should judge there must be a great saving in the employment of steam in threshing. When we saw the elegantly made and highly improved thresher with its adjunct, the steam engine of the present day, we could scarcely help contrasting them with the old flail and horsetramping of former days.-Rock. Reg.

A terrible tragedy occurred at a picnic, at Bordentown, N. J., on Thursday. The colored population of the city went to spend the afternoon of the Fourth in Commodore Stewart's woods. Among those present were a colored man named William Wood, and his young wife. Before the festivities had fairly commenced the greatest consternation and excitement was occasioned by Wood's going up to his wife and deliberately cutting her throat with a razor. It seems that Wood, who is about fifty years old had become jealous of his wife who was only about twenty years of age.

A commission was recently appointed by the British Government to investigate alleged out-rages committed by members of the Trade Unions in Sheffield, and their examination has led to startling disclosures. It seems that men are hired by officers of the Unions to commit gross outrages, and even murder.

TYALUABLE POTOMAC LAND FOR SALE. - By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of Westmoreland county, Va., in the suit of Stuart, trustee, vs. Kinzer and others, I, as Commissioner, in said decree appointed, will proceed to sell, on the 22d DAY OF JULY, 1867, at the Court House, in Westmoreland county, Va., at public auction, to the highest bidder, that well-known TRACT OF LAND in the decree mentioned, called ... LONGWOOD.

This fine estate lies in the county of Westmoreland, immediately on the Potomac, and is bounded on two sides by that river and Pope's Creek. The tract contains upwards of sixteen hundred acres of land, a large portion of the open land being flat, and lying on the creek and adapted to all the staple crops of the country .-Navigation is at the door, and of easy access for the shipment of grain, timber, cord-wood and other marketable commodities, and the waters abound in crabs, fish and wild-fowl, in their respective seasons. There is growing upon the land an extensive body of pine, chestnut, oak and locust timber, which, owing to the increased demand for timber and fuel, add greatly to the value of the es-

The old mansion was burnt some years ago, but there are comfortable dwelling houses standing near the old site, in good repair. The prospect from this point is beautiful, commanding a view of the river above and below, and looking out upon the shores of Maryland

"Longwood" is accessible by steamboat from landings at Curioman and Mattox Creeks, on the Potomac, or Leedstown, on the Rappahannock river.

A further description of this estate is deemed unnecessary, as any person wishing to purchase will, no doubt, visit and examine the premises. The title to this estate is unquestionable. Private offers will be received until the 10th day of July, and may be addressed to G. W. LEWIS, esq., at Oak Grove, Westmoreland county, Va., or to WM. R. DOZIER, Alexandria; but it not sold by that day, it will be sold at public auction, at the time and place first mentioned. The terms will be liberal, and made known on the day of sale. R. H. STUART Trustee and Comm'r. Near "Edge Hill," King George co., Va. King George co, je 10-cots
